Location

Place my artwork at a New Era University College near office punch card machine and art and design department.

Related with my artwork

Time and repetition, focus in every second time with breath, body and mind.

Office punch card as a daily repeat routine remind my artwork repeat and focus on every second on your life. Time appear and pass during every repeat movement.

Now office in university college can't enter and every student doing online class
My artworks began to get rid of the inspiration of digital life, but now we are a great irony of the Internet digital learning life.

Record time like a sewing machine and feel the passage of time.
