

MUARA SUARA

Setiap tempat mempunyai mempunyai ingatannya masing-masing akan kehidupannya. Samarinda, yang berada di Kalimantan Timur, tidak terlepas dari BIMP-EAGA—sebuah kawasan kerja sama ekonomi yang sejak 1994 mendorong arus modal, perdagangan, dan konektivitas infrastruktur antara Brunei Darussalam, Indonesia, Malaysia, dan Filipina. Di tengah arus eksploitasi, kami berusaha mendengar kembali bisikan bumi Samarinda; memberi tawaran auditif tentang keriuhan industri ekstraktif.

Every place has its own unique memories of its own life. Samarinda, located in East Kalimantan, is inseparable from BIMP-EAGA—an economic cooperation area that since 1994 has encouraged capital flows, trade, and infrastructure connectivity between Brunei Darussalam, Indonesia, Malaysia, and the Philippines. Amidst the flow of exploitation, we seek to hear the whispers of Samarinda's land, offering an auditory glimpse into the hustle and bustle of the extractive industry.
